SERVICE PROVIDERS

Our GP's each have a range of skills and interests outside the usual scope of GP practice. Many of our GPs have completed their training or extra studies in various specialties in the medical field. These include Women's health, Psychiatry, Paediatrics and Men's Health.

Patients with particular needs or enquiries are welcome to speak to our friendly reception staff to identify which GP may be best suited to your needs.

Dr Rosario Palaypayon MD FRACGP

Dr. Rosario Palaypayon studied medicine at the University of the City of Manila, in the Philippines. She moved to Australia in 2005 and worked for four years as a Hospital Medical Officer at Latrobe Regional Hospital in Traralgon, followed by rotations in Edenhope and Rochester.

Rosario came to Bendigo to complete her GP training and became a Fellow of the Royal Australian College of General Practitioners in 2012. She enjoys working as a country doctor and has particular interests in primary care, aged care, paediatrics, and women's health.

Dr Sara Careem MBBS FRACGP

Dr Sara Careem obtained her Medical degree from Monash University and has worked in various departments at Bendigo Base Hospital, including the Emergency Department,

Paediatrics and Oncology. Sara has worked in both our Strathfieldsaye and Heathcote Primary Health practices seeing a wide variety of patients. Sara enjoys applying the wide range of knowledge and skills she has gained through her experience to General Practice. Sara has a particular interest in Women's Health and Minor Surgical Procedures.

Dr Jennifer Suzuki MBBS FRACGP

Dr Jennifer Suzuki moved from Canada in 2005 after quitting her job in the forensic industry to follow her dream of studying medicine. Following her graduation, she moved to Bendigo and completed a number of rotations at the Bendigo hospital, including psychiatry, paediatrics and ICU. In 2011, she decided to be a GP and commenced her training with RACGP, while working at a variety of clinics around Bendigo. Dr Suzuki has special interests in Psychiatry and Sports Medicine.

Dr Adel Asaid MBBCH, FRACGP, OAM

Dr Adel Asaid graduated medicine in Cairo, Egypt at Ainshams University in 1982. He moved to Australia in 1988. He started work at the Bendigo Hospital and stayed there for over 12 years. Dr Asaid joined the Royal College of General Practitioners in 1998, and trained in Eaglehawk then Dimboola. It was there that his love with rural settings and country life began.

This led Dr Asaid to establish his first rural clinic in Elmore in 1999. Two years later St Anthony Family Medical Practice Pty Ltd opened a clinic in Boort, followed by Rochester, Heathcote, Strathfieldsaye, Rushworth and Spring Gully. Dr Asaid has a special interests in training new Doctors to maintain rural services, aged care, travel vaccinations and family medicine.

Dr Youssef Swiss MBBCH AMC FRACGP

Dr Joe Swiss graduated Medicine at Cairo University and began working in Emergency and General Practice for 10 years. Dr Joe currently works Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday at Waranga Medical Centre and Wednesdays at Spring Gully Primary Health.
